

INFANTRYMAN'S DEATH

Mr. Charles Herbert Draper, of 8, Nicholl's-close, Redbourn, who was discharged as unfit from the Durham Light Infantry five months ago, died in Oster House, St. Albans, last week, having been removed there the previous day. He was 41.

A native of Redbourn, he attended the village school and was later employed in the butcher's business of Mr. H. E. Arnold, of Redbourn. He had been a bell-
